

LEVELJUMP HEALTHCARE CORP.

NEW CTS ER CONTRACT STARTED

Toronto, ON – January 25, 2023 –LevelJump Healthcare Corp. (TSXV: JUMP) (OTCQB: JMPHF) (FSE: 75J) ("LevelJump" or the "Company"), a Canadian leader in B2B telehealth solutions, is pleased to announce that its' wholly owned subsidiary Canadian Teleradiology Services, Inc. ("CTS") has signed a new contract to supply its teleradiology services.

CTS has signed a new client hospital contract to provide radiology reading for overnight emergency room work. The hospital will utilize CTS radiologists to provide urgent STAT CT reading. On boarding, radiologist credentialing and IT set up is now complete and service has commenced.

This new contract is expected to increase CTS's annual revenues by between 2 to 4%.

This new contract is another example of the valuable service CTS provides to communities, especially during a time where there are staffing shortages throughout the industry. The CTS solution assists hospitals to ensure their emergency rooms continue 24/7 with critical care for patients.

"Organic growth is a key part of our strategy in addition to acquisitions," said Mitch Geisler, CEO. "We continue to increase revenues with both our telehealth solutions and in-patient care clinics. Hospitals see the benefits of our services, viewing us a strategic partner."
